Drive Through the Christmas Story Thank You —We want to personally thank all of the people who served at the Drive Through. We received such positive feedback regarding the scenes as well as the inside crafts, hospitality and story hour. That type of feedback does not happen by accident, it is a result of everyone’s hearts to serve.

Hands needed—Now sadly, we must take down our Drive Through scenes. This will be directly after service today. But just like Frosty says, it will be back again next year! This should only take about an hour with enough hands on deck. Perhaps you didn’t get to serve at the Drive Through and this can be your way to serve as well.
